LOCAL MATTERS.

St. Patrick's Day .- The arrangements for the celebration of St. Patrick's day have been completed, and with good weather the celebration will no doubt be very successful. The various organizations which will take part in the parade will assemble at 9 o'clock A. M. After service at the Cathedral the procession will be formed by Chief-Marshal John Murphy and his assistants, and will take up the line of march and parade the principal streets.

In the Capitol Square the procession will be reviewed by his Excellency Governor Holliday. After leaving the Governor's the procession will pass down Capitol to Governor, up Governor to Broad, up Broad to Tenth, up Tenth to Marshall, up Marshall to the place of meeting, where the line will be reviewed by the Marshal and his aids and staff; after which Hon. A. M. Keiley will address the line, which will close the day's celebration.

The day's festivities will conclude with a grand banquet at Callaban's dining-rooms, corner of E.eventh and Bank streets, at 7:30 P. M.

KELLAR THE MAGICIAN.-Kellar announces an engagement Tuesday evening at the Theatre for five nights and Saturday matinée. He closed an engagement of two weeks in Washington Saturday, where he seemed to delight every one who saw him. It is said that this clever necromancer gives the most finished, mystifying, and elegant evenings at the sbrine of modern magic. What he goes is so perfect in its method, so wonderful in its conception, and so entirely free from objectionable features that the most fastidious, the most curious, and the most inquiring of mind are all interested and aroused, and all unite in bestowing upon the skilful performer of the seemingly supernatural feats the warmest praise. In the part of the programme which includes the tricks of legerdemain, Mr. Kellar introduces, for the most part, entirely new exhibitions of sleight-of-hand, unaided by the complicated and multifarious machines of the ordinary prestidigitateur, and performs most of his transformations and transmutations in the midst of the audience. These evidences of the perfection of muscular training are thus made the more pleasing and the more confusing as every spectator, on the qui vive to detect the secret of the magician's operations, is compelled to confess that propinquity and every opportunity for observation render the feats only more and more puzzling.

[FOR OTHER "LOCAL" SEE FIRST PAGE.] Country Boarding.

Editors Dispatch: Your notice yesterday of the information that is being gathered by Mr. Dame is interesting to many families. May it not be well for people in the country to make up their minds that prices for summer boarding must come down? Everything has fallen in price in the cities; rents, groceries, property, all have come down; incomes are less; so that people must contract for moderate board if they are to be able to pay. Few families are able to pay travelling expenses and as much as $20 a month per capita with house-rent going on Let this suggestion be borne in mind.

The Bridge.- In compliance with orders from the Bridge Commissioners, the Free bridge was closed to vehicles Saturday. Several farmers from Chesterfield were somewhat surprised and outdone by the condemning of the bridge. They not being aware of the fact, attempted to travel over that thoroughfare with their various assortments of produce. The merchants and citizens generally have already begun to complain concerning the closing of the bridge.

The Market .- The market presented a very attractive appearance Saturday night, occasioned by the several elegant lamps recently placed there by order of the City

A Telephone.—A telephone connection will, it is said, be made between this city and Richmond. If the plan should be adopted no doubt it will be a success to those undertaking it. Certainly it would be of valuable assistance to the people of
